"THE Union—it must, and shall be preserved!"—Andrew Jackson.

"LIBERTY and Union—now and forever, one and inseparable!"—David Webster.

"If I am asked when I am for a dissolution of the Union, I answer, Never!—Henry Clay.

"It is a question of government or no government, country or no country!"—Stephen A. Douglas.

We Must Have Money.

We write this as a personal and individual duty to all persons knowing themselves indebted to the Gazette office.

There are several thousand dollars on our books which should be paid at once. We have nine hundred dollars' worth of accounts against persons who owe us for three years' subscription, besides numbers who owe us for one and two years.

The harvest has been abundant, greenbacks are plenty, Brongh is elected Governor and Ohio is safe, and there is no reason why every man indebted should not send us the amount due immediately after reading this notice. We have labored faithfully day and night, during the campaign, to furnish a good paper, and we hope now to receive a substantial and tangible reward.

Thieves, Robbers, and Assassins Abound.

In our last issue we gave an account of the bold and villainous robbery committed upon Mr. Pepple, who, we are happy to state, is now so far recovered as to be able to walk about. Thus far, we believe, nothing definite has been learned as to the identity of the robber. Since this, we have heard of a number of thefts and attempted robberies.

On last Friday night, the house of Mr. BOEHNER, on Columbus street, was entered by some burglar, and $100 in greenbacks stolen.

On the same night a hog was stolen from Mr. GROFF, at the Market House.

Burly in the same night, as Mr. John GROFF was driving along the turnpike east of the city, on his way to market, he was approached by a tall man, with heavy beard and mustache, who struck him with a "billy." Mr. Groff warded the blow, and seizing a butcher-knife, made a thrust at the robber, and put him to flight.

We also hear of an attempted robbery near Carroll. A man on horseback was seized by some one and compelled to dismount. A desperate fight ensued, in which the robber was badly beaten and obliged to fly.

We have information also of thefts and attempted robberies in surrounding cities. An attempted robbery and murder was last week committed in Columbus. The police arrested four or five of the gang, one of whom was killed in attempting to escape.

These crimes admonish our citizens to be on their guard. We should have an efficient extra police, who will guard well the city and leave no stone unturned to ferret out the scoundrels.

All the members of the Lancaster Ladies Soldiers' Aid Society are requested to attend the meeting on Thursday, 5th inst., at 2 o'clock, P.M., at Mrs. Dr. Effinger's. Business of interest and importance will be placed before the Society for its consideration and decision.

Difficulties in Parsing.

"That I say is this, that that gentleman has advanced, is not that that he should have proved to your lordships?"—Spectator.

"He said that that that that lady parsed, was not that that that gentleman requested her to parse?"—Kirkham.

The foregoing sentences exemplify all the different constructions of which the word "that" is susceptible.

MILITARY REPUBLIC.

By the census of 1860 there were 27,000,000 of white people in the United States. Of these 20,000,000 belong to the loyal States, one half of whom, or 10,000,000 are males. Of these males 34 per cent. are between the ages of 20 and 45, making 3,400,000 of our arm-bearing population. These loyal States have sent 1,360,000 men to the field, or slightly over 1 to 2½ of all between the ages of 20 and 45! And yet we have enough left to whip out the rebellion and carry forward the great interests of the country as if no war was on our hands. It was not thought possible that Republic could be a military nation; but the fact as now demonstrated is not the most encouraging to foreign nations. All they have to do, however, is to maintain a strict neutrality during the war, respect our logic after the right of the American Continent, to insure our peaceful disposition.

The Battle of Lookout Mountain.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The following was received this morning at the headquarters of the army.

CHATTANOOGA, Oct. 29.
Major-General H. W. Halleck:

"In the fight of last night, the enemy attacked Gen. Geary's division, posted at Wahatchie, on three sides, and broke his camp at one point, but was driven back in the most gallant style, by part of his forces, the remainder being held in reserve."

"Howard, whilst marching to Gen. Geary's relief," was attacked in the flank, the enemy occupying in force two commanding hills on the left of the road. He immediately threw forward two of his regiments and took both at the point of the bayonet, "driving the enemy from his breastworks and across Lookout Creek. In this brilliant success over their old adversary the conduct of the officers and men of the 11th and 12th corps is entitled to the highest praise.

Federal Losses at Chickamauga.

According to the official reports published by the Cincinnati Gazette, the Federal losses killed, wounded and missing, at Chickamauga, amounted to 15,853, of whom 1,744 were killed; wounded and brought in by our own men, 9,262. Of the 4,185 missing, about 2,500 were wounded and left on the field, and about 1,700 were soon exchanged. The total of wounded was about 12,000, or seven wounded to one killed; of the killed 131, of the wounded 659, and of the missing as many more will make up the total of 15,853 wego-officers—nearly one to each 15 enlisted men, which shows how nobly our officers devote themselves. Of the killed about forty were field officers. Only one General (Lytle) was killed, but several Colonels commanding brigades were killed. Of the above aggregate, Thomas' corps lost 6,201; McCook's 4,518; Crittenden's 3,390; Granger's two brigades of the reserve, 1,732. We lost 36 pieces of artillery, and 400 cavalry horses were killed. We have good authority for stating that our infantry force engaged in the battle was 50,000 men. As a correspondent of the Columbus (Miss.) Enquirer says that the official reports show that the rebel loss was 18,000 men—showing a total of about 34,000 men in the two armies—at least 25,000 of whom were killed or wounded.
